

For Immediate Release

GMT Global Republic Aviation Announces the Acquisition of One Airbus A319 Aircraft

Dublin, Ireland (August 17, 2015) – GMT Global Republic Aviation (GMT Global) today announced that it has completed the acquisition of one Airbus A319-100 aircraft, on lease to American Airlines.

“GMT is pleased to add this aircraft to our portfolio” said Randy Dietrich, CEO of GMT Global and Republic Financial Corporation. “The A319 has established itself as an integral part of the single-aisle market and is operated today by over 100 airlines around the world. We also look forward to further developing our relationship with American Airlines over the coming years.”

About GMT Global Republic Aviation

Based in Dublin, GMT Global Republic Aviation is an aircraft leasing company that acquires, leases and manages a fleet of commercial aircraft. More information is available at www.gmt-aviation.com. GMT Global is a wholly owned subsidiary of Republic Financial Corporation.

About Republic Financial Corporation

Republic Financial Corporation is a privately held company headquartered in Denver, Colorado, with investment interests in a diverse pool of aviation assets, operating companies and commercial debt. More information is available at: www.republic-financial.com.

GMT Global Republic Aviation:

48 Upper Baggot Street,
Dublin 4, Ireland
+353.1.2103475
www.gmt-aviation.com

Media Contacts:

John Leech
+353.1.2103475
ileeche@gmt-aviation.com

Edmund Tatar
+1 303.923.2488
etatar@gmt-aviation.com